PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This month we celebrate our 45th anniversary. Forty five years ago a group of hardworking and dedicated Italian Americans got together and invested their own money to create a place, where Italians and non-Italians alike, could come and celebrate the true Italian way of life filled with family, love, laughter and, of course, food. Forty five years later we have sustained a club of which those Italian Americans would be and are extremely proud.

To celebrate, as part of our annual Columbus Day Gala on October 13th, we will welcome, as our special musical guest, Italian recording artist Michael Amante. In addition, we are honoring Roddy Valente, the CEO of RJ Valente, as our Italian American of the Year. Also, Congressman Paul Tonko will be the recipient of our Italian Spirit Award. Our special member awards will be presented to Jim Sano, Dave Quadrini and Maria LaMorte. If you haven't made your reservation you can register online at www.italianamerican.com or by calling the membership office. It's going to be an exciting evening filled with special guests, awards and entertainment you don't want to miss.

Our annual family Halloween Costume Party will be held in the pavilion on Saturday, October 27th from 4:00pm to 7:00pm. Children under 12 are free and adults are only $10. Don't forget your costume!

Finally now that summer is officially over I would like to thank the many committees and volunteers that made all of our summer events possible. I would especially like to thank Jim Sano for his tireless effort in making our pool the best place to be in the summer heat and Maria DeNitto and her pavilion committee for making our Friday nights so memorable.

Ciao,

FRANK ZEOLI

I KNOW NOTHING

I have previously discussed general approaches for finding ancestral information. Here, I want to take a different tack, using a specific case study. I see innumerable remarks in my email and in response to my genealogy columns that go something like this. “I know nothing but my father’s name. He said he was born in Sicily. Can you help me find my ancestry?”

My usual response is “I’m sure you know more about your father. When was he born? Where did he live? What was his occupation? What were the names of his siblings, in order of age?” The reader responded: “My father’s name was Calogero Montante. He was born in about 1913 and lived in Rochester, New York in the 1940’s, marrying my mother Marie. He was the eldest, and his siblings, were Leonard, Raymond, and Carmela. He worked in a glass factory. But I know nothing about his ancestry.”

That’s not a lot of information, but neither is it “nothing”. Start with the most recent information, wary of misspellings. I looked for the Montante surname in the 1940 U. S. Census for Rochester, on Ancestry.com, familysearch.org and other venues. In the census, taken on 1 April 1940, I found a Calogero ‘Montanti’, age at last birthday 50, born in ‘Italy’. That’s the right name, but he would have been born in about 1890, not 1913. However, in addition to his wife Rose, the census lists children Leonard, Raymond and Carmela. The sons were born in Pennsylvania, and the daughter in New York State. This looked like the right family. A son Calogero wasn’t listed, but being the eldest, he may have lived elsewhere in 1940.

In the U. S., “Charles” is commonly used for “Calogero”. I searched the 1940 census for “Charles Montante” and found one, born in ‘Italy’, age 27 (born about 1913), a mechanic in a glass factory, with a wife Marie and two children, at a different address from the other ‘Montanti’ family. I then searched for the family in the 1930 Census, and found “Charlie” Montante, age 40, with wife Rose and children “Charles”, age 17, Leonard, Raymond and Carmela. The 1940 Census gives no immigration information; while 1930’s states that “Charlie” Sr. immigrated in 1913 and had been naturalized.

Continuing back in time, and since the censuses said some of the children were born in Pennsylvania, I searched the 1920 U. S. Census for that state. I found a Charley ‘Muntanti’, age 30, an alien born in ‘Italy’, living in Pittston, PA with wife ‘Rosy’ and sons ‘Charles’, born in Italy, and Leonardo and Raimondo, born in Pennsylvania. So the elder Calogero immigrated in about 1913, and was naturalized as a U. S. citizen sometime between 1920 and 1930. None of the censuses gave any birthplace details except ‘Italy’ (‘Italy’ included Sicily). Usually no town or city was named, unless it was a major city like Rome. Now, one of two approaches might work. Knowing that Calogero Sr. was naturalized between 1920 and 1930, we could search for his naturalization records. These would give his date and place of birth, date of immigration, the ship’s name, his U. S. address, and the names and birth dates of his family members. Such records are not that easy to find, but may be held at a County Clerk’s or local court office.

Another avenue is to search for the ship's passenger manifest of Calogero Sr. Records are available on-line on familysearch.org, Ancestry.com, and ellisland.org. I searched, and found a record for Calogero Montante, emigrating on the SS Berlin in May 1913 at age 24, travelling to his brother Antonio in Pittston. The name of the closest relative left behind was Calogero's wife Rosa Latona, in the town of Occhibanna, Sicily. It also gave Occhibanna as Calogero's last place of residence and birthplace.

Knowing the critical piece of information, the ancestral town, the next step was to find Calogero Montante Sr.'s birth record. Records for many towns are available on Ancestry.com, familysearch.org and on the official Italian 'Ancestors' site at <http://bit.ly/ItalianRecordsPortal>. 1890 is the approximate year indicated by Calogero Sr.'s age in the census and passenger manifest. His name wasn't in the 1890 birth index for Occhibanna, so I checked 1889. He was born on 26 April 1889, confirming the report in the 1 April 1940 census: "50 at his last birthday". The birth record gives his father's name, age, occupation and street address; his mother's name, and a margin note stating that Calogero married Rosa Latona in 1912. Starting with this information, earlier records were located that extended the reader's family tree to the early 1800's, with the names of many of his g-g-g-g grandparents back to the early 1700's. All from 'nothing'.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Women's League took our meeting back inside as we faced the ensuing earlier sunsets. We had our usual good attendance. Our dinners are always delicious and served in a very relaxed presentation. We tied blankets to be given to children in need which had been brought to us by Dawn Martin of Uncle Shawn's Hugs.

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Come to our meeting to see a Power Point program of a remarkable team of women. We are going to welcome Ellen Schell, a coach for the last two years to the local Hope in the Boat team. The Dragon Boat Breast Cancer Survivor Association is International. The local chapter was formed in 2007, led by the vision of Lucille Allegretti Freeman. In 2009, they completed enough fund-raising to purchase their own Dragon Boat.

Hope in the Boat welcomes all breast cancer survivors no matter what age or whether athletic or a former coach potato. Their mission is to promote wellness and provide hope and partnership to those on the breast cancer journey. Being on the river is soothing and peaceful. Hope in the Boat members paddle twice a week on the Mohawk River from Blaine's Marina in Cohoes. This team went to Florence, Italy this past July to compete in the International Dragon Boat Race. Come to our meeting to hear and see this program.

Hurry to reserve. Our meeting date is Wednesday, October 10th, with dinner served at 6:30. The dinner selections are Herbed Pork Loin or White Fish Puttanesca (red sauce). Cheesecake with Strawberry Topping will be served for dessert. The price of dinner is $22.00. Please call Sharon Patrei at 518-765-3283 or email your dinner selection to slpatrei@aol.com by Sunday, October 7th. As is standard policy, please let Sharon know by October 9th if you need to cancel.

See you then,

What Is Chair Yoga?

Chair yoga is a gentle form of yoga, that is practiced sitting in a chair or standing using the chair for support. This is a great physical activity for individuals who are seeking light workouts due to physical limitations and for individuals who are currently recovering from a recent injury or surgery.

Slow Cooker Beef Stew

Nothing screams fall and comfort food like beef stew! I sometimes make this on the stove top, but I love the texture of the beef in the slow cooker. It simply breaks apart with your fork and is so tender.

To prepare this in the crock pot, coat the bottom of the pot with one turn of the pan of extra virgin olive oil. Place 2 pounds of boneless stew beef on top of the oil and season with sea salt and cracked pepper.

Next, chop all of your veggies. I use one yellow onion, 2 cloves of garlic (minced), approximately 2 cups of chopped carrots, 3 stalks of celery, and 2 red potatoes. Place all of the veggies on top of the beef in the crock pot. Add one can of stewed tomatoes, one cup of red cooking wine, and one cup of water.

Season with more salt & pepper, parsley, and basil. Set the crock pot on low for 8 hours or high for 4 hours.

When the timer is done, whisk together one cup of beef stock and 3 tablespoons of flour until the mixture is free of clumps. Mix well into the beef stew. Set the crock pot on low and heat through for about 30 minutes or until the sauce thickens. Taste and adjust salt to your liking.

Serve with Italian bread for dipping!

T.H.E. Life Changer Benefit Concert For The Father Peter Young Foundation

Jim Gaudet and The Railroad Boys are thrilled to be bringing their unique brand of "Hillbilly Rock and Roll" to The Italian American Community Center (I.A.C.C.) to celebrate, support and benefit the wonderful work that is being performed by Reverend Peter Young through his foundation.

WHEN: Thursday October 4th, 7:00 pm

WHERE: I.A.C.C. Pavilion Parking is readily accessible on the lawn next to the Pavilion.
257 Washington Ave. Ext Albany, NY. 12205

COST: $20

For Tickets and Information:

or send a check to Father Peter G. Young Foundation
40 Eagle Street Albany, NY 12207

Dinner and drinks will be available for purchase prior to the concert in the Pavilion from 5pm-7pm.
The concert starts at 7 pm.

The Railroad Boys present Jim Gaudet's songs in a way that would have you thinking that you've gone back in time to an old Texas roadhouse. It's good wholesome up-tempo fun. Critics have said that Jim's songs quickly hit home and resonate with the listeners the very first time they hear them. Audience members will want to be singing along and tapping their feet from the beginning to the end. When the RR Boys come to town the night always ends with the crowd knowing that they've made some new friends.

This year, the Italian American Community Center celebrates its 45th anniversary. As we look around the IACC today its important we take a moment to reflect on how the organization, we all know and love, came to be and how it has changed over the years.

It all started in 1969 when a group of hardworking and dedicated Italian Americans got together and created a plan to build and establish an Italian American Community Center. This center, or as it has been affectionately called by its members, "the Club" would replace the old center on lower Madison Avenue in Albany.

Due to the construction of the South Mall and the closing of St. Anthony's Church many Italians were scattered all over the Capital District relocating in areas like Delaware Ave & Russell Road in the city of Albany. A site was chosen on the outskirts of the city, although still within the City limits. The purpose of the club was to pull together the scattered Capital District Italian Americans.

To accomplish this, the center sought three hundred members whose initiation fee would be recognized by the issuance of a "Capital Certificate". These members were to become the official charter members of the Italian American Community Center of the Capital District. It was the financing provided by these charter members that made the building of this facility possible. The center would include a recreation field, swimming pool, bocce court and health club, but more importantly, it would provide our members with a place to gather, sing and dance, eat well and imbibe in the fertile juice of the grape.

After four years of planning and construction, on October 12, 1973 at 2pm the building was officially dedicated by Mayor Erastus Corning, Chairman Colonna, numerous county and city officials and most importantly our charter members and their families. Mayor Corning delivered a most sincere and eloquent address expressing his pleasure that the Italian Community was so quickly approaching its goal of a new home.

Chairman Colonna said in part: "...the new center should be a repository for books and information pertaining to Italian culture and such information should be disseminated throughout the area to foster a better understanding between people of different ethnic backgrounds."

Father Joseph Romano gave the Invocation and blessed the cornerstone. "A recreation field, swimming pool, bocce court, and health club were included in the plans to attract the young and athletically inclined to our membership. This place will be used as a place to gather and recreate, sing, dance, eat, and enjoy fellowship and all things Italian."

Over the next forty five years the IACC would see many changes from the addition of the Dante banquet room, the building of the pavilion, the addition of the elevator, the creation of the IACC Foundation and the decision to allow non Italians to be full members of the club. The IACC has never stopped evolving and never stops striving to be the premier Italian American organization in upstate New York.

"I am proud of where the IACC is today, always looking at past traditions while living in the present and planning for the future" said Frank Zeoli current IACC president. "We have created a club that not only provides great enjoyment for all people, but at the same time, connects a new generation of Italian Americans with traditions and an ethnicity which has been all but lost in today's world.

To honor our 45th anniversary Italian recording artist Michael Amante will perform at our annual Columbus Gala on October 13th. Tickets are available by visiting www.italianamerican.com or by call 518-456-IACC.

LABOR DAY

Thank you to everyone for a memorable 2018 pool season. This year our members made our pool BBQ's something special. Thank you to this year's lifeguards, Malcolm, Sam, Mark, Lexy, Maggie, Skylar, and Michele for keeping everything running smoothly and safely. Stay warm, safe and sound this winter and see you all in May 2019.
