PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

All I can say is Wow! Wow to an amazing Columbus Day Event. I have seen several videos and received raving reviews from those who attended, (unfortunately I was out of town). I heard it was a night that will be long remembered. My heartfelt thanks to all the volunteers that help every year to put on this memorable evening. Many months of planning go into our events that "just happen." My thanks also to the volunteers that staged the Family Halloween Party as well. Once again, we had over 100 attendees come out to celebrate with their children and grandchildren.

I cannot believe that my year as President has flown by so quickly. On November 13 at noon, we will be holding our Annual General Membership Brunch meeting and elections. Please plan on attending. The special price for the brunch meeting is $5 per adult. Sorry no children since this is a working business meeting. Please plan on attending so we can share the year in review, as well as future plans.

In addition to Election Day and Thanksgiving in November, we also celebrate Veterans Day. In observance of Thanksgiving (Thursday and Friday) and Veterans Day our membership office will be closed. To also honor our Veterans, we will be traveling to the VA Hospital on November 28 to put on our special Italian Luncheon, to remember and thank those who have served our country.

In closing, please exercise your privilege to vote on Election Day and give thanks to all our veterans for their service and sacrifice. Most of all, I wish you happiest and healthiest of times with your families on Thanksgiving.

Hi Ladies,

As many of you know, the Women's League contributes to our community through our numerous, charitable events. This past month we carried on this tradition with one of our favorite events, Uncle Shawn's Hugs. A special thank you to everyone that attended our October meeting and helped tie the blankets together. I cannot begin to tell you how much our work is appreciated by Dawn Martin of Uncle Shawn's Hugs.

This month we will direct our efforts toward another group in need – our Veterans. Every year the Women's League sponsors a luncheon at the Veteran's Hospital and this month we are collecting items that will be delivered to the Veteran's Hospital. We are asking people to bring to the meeting toiletries, include men's and women's items (let's not forget our female veterans). Soaps, lotions, shaving items, deodorant, toothpaste and brushes, hair combs and brushes and anything else you can think of.

I also called the VA Hospital to see what other items they are in need of, they said they also need cans of regular coffee, non-dairy creamer, sugar, large print crossword puzzle books, sweatpants and sweat-shirts (all sizes both male and female). If you cannot make the meeting, please drop any items off to our membership office and we will pick them up. Also, please bring any spare shopping bags or boxes you have around your house. We will package the items at our November meeting and prepare them for delivery. Your donations will be a wonderful way to thank our vets for their service to our country.

Mark your calendar for our annual "Family Christmas Party" on Sunday, December 11th from noon till 4:00 pm. Look for details in this issue of the Siamo Qui. At our December meeting we will elect our officers for Women's League – 2017.

Women's League

In accordance to our by-laws, the slate of candidates is being announced here. There will be no nominations from the floor the night of the meeting.

President: Donna Zumbo
Vice President: Caroline Mancino
Secretary: Sharon Patrei
Treasurer: Joan Wallis

Our dinner choices this month are traditional turkey dinner served with mashed potatoes and vegetables or manicotti. We will begin with butternut squash soup and we will have apple crisp with vanilla gelato for dessert. Please call to make your reservations with Maria Denitto at 456-2166 by Sunday, November 6th. Cancellations by Monday, November 7th. Our price remains at $20.00. Please remember our cancellation policy remains in effect.

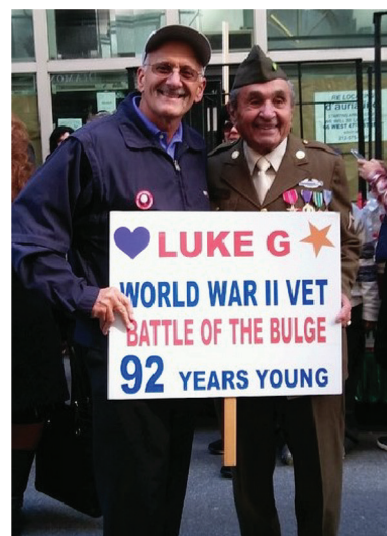

See you all on Wednesday, November 9th at 6:30 p.m..

Donna Zumbo
Women's League President

Thank You To All Our Veterans!

SOCIAL MEDIA AND GENEALOGY

Genealogists of all stripes, especially ‘amateurs’ have long subscribed to the idea of ‘reciprocal acts of kindness’. By ‘amateurs’ I’m not necessarily referring to novice or inexperienced researchers, but to those, many of whom are certainly experienced and ‘professional’ in all other respects, who don’t accept payment for their services. These ‘acts of kindness’ might include, for example, taking a photo of a headstone for another researcher who is far away; visiting a records repository in a researcher’s ancestral town, or translating a record.

In this internet age, another means of helping others (or receiving help) presents itself, in ‘social media’. Two that I use are ‘Linked in’ and ‘facebook’. Both are free, unless “upgrades” or advertisements are wanted. I have used both for years, without needing to upgrade or advertise at extra cost.

As on most sites, some messages you receive will involve suggestions for purchase of things or services; however, I find that these offers are generally ‘low-key’ and no one is required to purchase anything they don’t want, or to join a ‘pushy’ group. Managers of the sites usually discourage such posts. One can also ask other users to comment on the value or desirability of such services. Members can post virtually any type of question or request, from translation of a single word to an entire document, to hints on how to start a family tree, to what family tree-generating software is best, to help in finding a specific ancestral record. Both sites give only as much information about the user as he/she wants to release (in their “profiles”), and allow messages between users without revealing names or e-addresses unless desired.

‘Linked in’ (www.linkedin.com) is essentially an on-line site that enables working professionals to interact, find employment or potential employees, etc. However, one need not be in any given profession to join, or be actively employed, nor necessarily be interested in the primary agenda of the site. It has numerous “groups”, membership in which allows discussion on topics of interest.

Typical Linked in genealogy groups include: Books About Genealogy; Genealogy Research Group; Italian Genealogy; Sicily (Sicilia) Genealogy; International Society of Genetic Genealogy and many, many more.

‘facebook’ (www.facebook.com) is the seminal, iconic, ‘social medium’. Certainly much of the traffic on it is ordinary, mundane discussion of day-to-day lives, activities, interests and gripes. But it, too, has valuable genealogy-oriented groups. I belong to these: Sicilian and Aeolian Islands Genealogy; Italian Genealogy Records; Genealogy! Just ask!; and Ancestry-GEDmatch-FTDNA-

23andMe-Genealogy-DNA. There are also groups or pages devoted to ancestral towns. These are not specifically genealogy-centric, but may enhance contact with relatives from those town. Accordingly, I frequent the pages Mussomelesi nel Mondo, Serradifalco Il Mio Paese, Racalmutesi nel Mondo and others for my towns of interest.

I have seen novice researchers ask questions on-line, like: “My grandparents (so-and-so and his wife, so-and-so) came to America in 1910, and I know nothing else about them.” And within a few hours (or even minutes) such queries can receive responses from one or several users, on how to proceed with the research. In many cases, responses include details from census records, passenger manifests and ancestral towns that identify the immigrants, give extensive facts, and even include images of the desired records and/or links to the websites that contain the information. As noted, some responses may direct you to services for pay, but even these may serve your needs at a reasonable price.

So if you have a question about genealogy, or specifically about your Italian or Sicilian ancestors, be social! Join Linked in and/or facebook and make some new friends who may be able to help you in your quest. Such interaction may also put you in touch with previously unknown family members who are researching the same branches you’re investigating.

Columbus Day Grand Gala 2016

CLUB
NEWS & EVENTS

By: FRANK ZEOLI

Our 43rd annual Columbus Day Grand Gala was held on October 15th and attended by almost 200 guests. It was a magical evening filled with great food, exceptional music and a whole lot of laughter.

The Mallozzi Family outdid themselves yet again with a truly jaw dropping collection of hors d'oeuvres, salad, pasta and a choice of Filet Mignon, Chicken Parmigiana, or Salmon. All of this followed up with an astonishing "Viennese" table complete with bananas' foster, cordials and espresso.

We were proud to honor Anthony "Tony" Sabatino, with our Italian American of the Year Award as well as Father Peter Young with our inaugural Italian Spirit Award. Both men spoke passionately from the heart about their life's experiences and what brought them to this place in life.

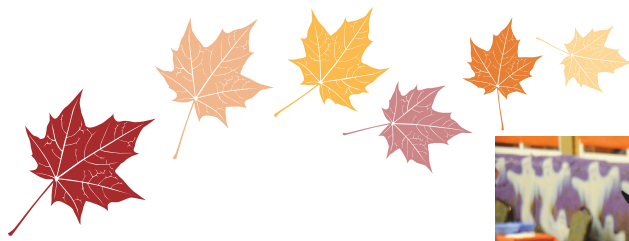

The highlight of the evening was when, our special guest, two-time Emmy nominated recording artist ALFIO performed. During the performance many of the attendees sang along, some even cried, as he belted out songs like "Con Te Partirò" and "Parla Pu Piano".

We danced until midnight to the great sounds of TS Ensemble. It can be said that there are two kinds of people in this world, those who attended the gala and those who didn't. Well for all of those who missed this year's gala you missed one great event!

The event would not have been possible without the hard work and dedication of Maria DeNitto, Mary Lou Marando, Gail Tarantino, Maria Lamorte, Donna Zumbo, Sharon Patrei and Jim Sano. This group is already planning our 44th annual Columbus Day Grand Gala on October 14, 2017 so mark your calendars and see you next year.

The IACC Halloween Party was held on Saturday, Oct 22nd in the Pavilion. There were over 100 people in attendance, many in costumes. The DJ kept everyone entertained and the kids really enjoyed dancing, decorating pumpkins, making masks, bowling and winning prizes.

The new bathroom in the pavilion was everyone's favorite. It was nicely decorated with skeletons and cobwebs. The "spooky sounds" that echoed in the bathroom when you first entered was a big hit. There also was a "photo booth" opportunity with the witches. It was thoughtfully designed and sponsored by Belinda Mex Moreno. Many thanks to her for all the photos she took for the attendees.

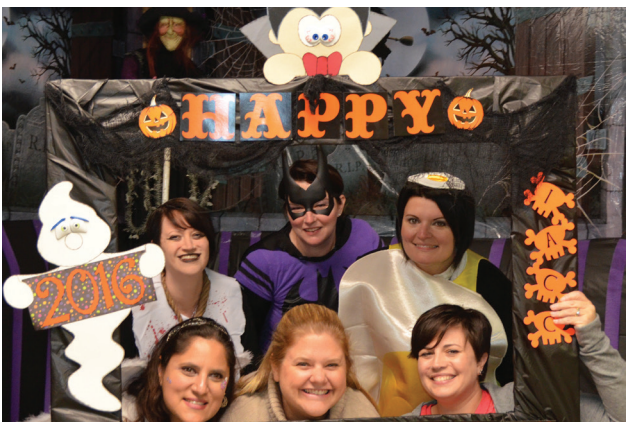

To conclude the evening, despite the light rain, over fifty children trick-or-treated their way around the bocci courts. They received a variety of goodies, including a safety pumpkin lantern that they can use to keep safe when they go trick-or-treating at home.

A special thanks to everyone who helped make this event a great success, especially Miriam Sanchez and Belinda Moreno, who spent countless hours decorating and coming up with unique ideas that would wow the guests. Also, this party would not be complete without the delicious food that was made by Christine Dionna and her husband Joe. I must also thank everyone who volunteered to help serve the food and clean up. Everyone's efforts are so greatly appreciated!!

Thank you to everyone who attended, and who helped make this event a wonderful memory for our children, grandchildren and their families.

Thanksgiving Turkey Meatballs

with Cranberries

These meatballs would make a great appetizer on Thanksgiving Day, a Thanksgiving dinner side dish, or dinner for any night of the year! They are both savory and sweet with tart fresh cranberries balanced with sweet agave nectar. And did I mention they are healthy?!

Here are the things you'll need:

- 1 lb of ground turkey
- 1 cup of fresh cranberries, halved
- 1 cup of Italian style bread crumbs
- 1 tablespoon of agave nectar
- 1 egg
- garlic powder
- salt
- ground black pepper

Combine all ingredients in a large bowl. Now it's time to take your rings off and get your hands dirty! Mix the ingredients with your hands until everything is well blended.

Roll the mixture into balls and place them on a greased cookie sheet (I use coconut oil spray). Bake at 375 degrees until brown and crispy (approximately 25 mins). Makes about a dozen meatballs.

Enjoy!!
