President's Message

Wow, where has the year gone! Let me start by thanking the board of directors for choosing me to be your president in 2017 and for re-electing me to serve in 2018. It is my sincere hope that I continue to surpass the expectations you have of me as I carry out this important leadership role.

Looking back on 2017, I can't help but reflect upon all we have accomplished and shared here at the IACC; events such as Super Bowl, Carnevale, Ferragosto, Friday Nights in the Pavilion and, of course, our annual Columbus Day Gala. Each of these events was a complete success with many of them seeing record attendance. There were also sold out bus trips to Arthur Avenue and Yankee Stadium. We saw several improvements to our club including the renovation of our second floor president's room complete with new walls, ceilings, lighting, carpeting and an audio visual system.

Our plans for 2018 are shining as well. We start renovation of the second floor hallway and board room in January. We will be unveiling a new logo and website to celebrate our 45th anniversary. Planning is underway for many of our annual events and some special member surprises throughout the year.

Last month, I appointed Joan Wallis as the new editor of the Siamo Qui. She has volunteered to take a broad approach at managing our newsletter from choosing content, proofreading articles and ensuring that we are not missing any opportunities to get our message out to all of our members. I would like to thank Lynda Scalzo for her hard work as our past editor and welcome Joan to this important role in our club.

The year is not over yet. Don't forget our Inaugural Tree Lighting event on December 3rd and our Family Christmas party on December 10th. Finally I would like to wish you and your family a very happy and healthy Christmas season.

Buona Natale,

FRANK ZEOLI

Sometimes discussing specific cases can help understand the general techniques for researching Sicilian and Italian genealogical records. Below is a request from a reader, and my response. Although it deals with specific surnames, and towns in three different provinces, my responses apply to any search for ancestors. Simply replace the names of the persons and towns below with those of your forebears and their villages, and search the venues indicated for images of original records, where possible. Though many individuals now may be searched for on-line by entering only their names, not every name has been indexed, and often those that have, have been misspelled.

Reader: I'm looking for the Augello and Naso families from Sicily. I have traced back a little but then I am stuck. I am having difficulty finding anything under those surnames before the mid-1800s that seem to be related and I am thinking either there were no records or I don't know the correct spelling. I have Calogero Augello, born 1874, married to Concetta Frattallone, born 1881. For the Naso side I have Stefano Naso, born 1894, marrying a cousin Emily Carmela Naso, born in 1898. I know much of the Naso family was from Palermo. Do you have any suggestions?

Note: after my correspondence with the reader, she revealed that the Augello's and Frattalone's were from the towns of Sommatino and Canicatti, and that the Naso's were from Marineo. My response follows.

Images of original civil records of birth, marriage and death for Sommatino (in Caltanissetta Province) are available for the years 1820 through 1910. They are available on line for the years 1866 - 1910 on three venues: they are free on the Mormon site familysearch.org and the Italian Antenati site at <http://bit.ly/ItalianRecordPortal>.

They can also be viewed on the paid genealogy site Ancestry.com. Records prior to 1866 may be viewed on line at a Mormon FamilySearch Center (FSC). Some FSCs may have microfilms covering those years for Sommatino.

From Ancestry.com, the 1874 Sommatino birth record of Calogero Augello shows his parents' names as Ignazio Augello, age 34, son of the late Sebastiano, and Crocifissa Sciascia, age 22, daughter of the late Calogero. A margin note on the first page states that Calogero Augello married Concetta Frattalone on 21 September 1902 in Sommatino. At one of the on-line venues noted above you should be able to find their marriage record, which would give their parents' names and whether they were still living in 1902. If deceased, look for the parents' death records, which will give their ages and their parents' names.

Concetta Frattalone's birth record will also be on line. It will give the age of her father, and you should be able to guess whether he was married after 1865 (men usually married at about age 24). If so, his marriage record will be on line. Once you work back to ancestors with records prior to 1865, you'll have to view the records at an FSC. To find a center near you, go to <http://bit.ly/LocateFSCs>

Civil records are available for Canicatti (in Agrigento Province) for the years 1866 - 1910 on Ancestry.com; they are also on the Italian Archives site. They are available for all the years 1820 - 1910 on family search.org. However, to view the Canicatti records, you must go to an FSC. You cited some information you gleaned from transcribed records at familysearch.org, but wherever possible, you should forego the transcribed records and find the actual images of the original 'atti' (records) of births ('nascite'), marriages ('matrimoni') and deaths ('morti'). These records are in the Italian language, but they give much more detail than the transcribed summaries, which also often contain errors by the indexers. To help in reading and interpreting the original records, I suggest a book like 'Discovering Your Italian Ancestors' by Lynn Nelson, and viewing of on-line tutorials like the ones on familysearch.org at <http://bit.ly/ItalianResearch>. You can also use the records I have posted on-line for my ancestors. To see these original records, translated, go to <http://bit.ly/HeritagePath> and follow the links.

You originally said the Naso family was 'from Palermo'. Immigrants often gave the name of the province that they were from, and in Sicily and much of the mainland, each province has a capital city with the same name as the province, leading to confusion. When searching for records or seeking assistance in doing so, it's important to make the distinction. Since it turns out that the Naso family was from the town of Marineo, in Palermo Province, you can search for records from that town. Marineo does have on-line civil records for 1820 through 1901, but these, too, must be viewed at a FamilySearch Center.

Women's League

For our final Women's League meeting of the year, we will have a Christmas Party! We will start a little earlier, at 6:00 pm, with an array of sumptuous appetizers. We will also have a grab bag so I ask you to bring a wrapped gift with a value of $15.00 to $20.00. You are not obligated to participate in the grab bag. We will also have some games and the "ugly sweater contest" with prizes for the winners. Last month, we wrapped between 40 and 45 plush animals and they were greatly appreciated when we donated them to St. Catherine's Center for Children in Albany. I am very proud of our Women's League as we, once again, helped our community and will make some very deserving children happy with a new stuffed animal.

The Women's League does not meet in the winter months of January and February so the matter of a chairperson(s) for the Mother/Daughter Luncheon and Fashion Show should be determined before our winter recess. Please give it some thought if you are interested in being the chairperson or serving on the committee. This is our premier fundraiser and a club favorite event.

Also, please remember our Family Christmas Party will be held on Sunday December 10th from Noon to 4:00 pm. If you signed up to get a raffle prize, please bring it to the club no later than Saturday, December 9th. On Saturday, December 9th, I will need a few ladies to help with putting the raffle prizes together and wrapping them with ribbon and bows. We will meet in the board room at 10:00 am to finish the raffle prizes.

As I mentioned last month, our election of officers will be held at the December meeting. Our by-laws state that the candidates will be published in our newsletter. Nominations are now closed. The nominees for officers for the 2018 Women's League are:

- PRESIDENT: LINDA HOFFMAN
- VICE PRESIDENT: LYNN INDELICATO
- TREASURER: SHARON PATREI
- SECRETARY: MARILYN QUADRINI

Our Women's League will be in great hands with this slate.

This month our meeting is on Wednesday, December 13th at 6:00 p.m. After our appetizers, our dinner choices will be Salmon Bruschetta, Chicken Parmesan or Pasta Primavera. Please call or email your reservation to Sharon Patrei at 765-3283 or sjpatrei@aol.com by Sunday, December 10th. Cancellations must be made by Monday, December 11th. Our price remains at $20.00 and the cancellation policy remains in effect.

Buon Natale,

Donna Zumbo

ANNUAL GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

By: Frank Zeoli and Jim Sano

On November 12, 2017, the IACC Membership met to hear from the Board of Directors and officers regarding the state of the club. In addition, the membership elected 3 new directors to the board. By unanimous vote, Maria DeNitto, Jim Sano and Sharon Patrei were elected to the board for a three year term. They will all be a welcome addition to our already talented and dedicated Board of Directors.

President Frank Zeoli gave a year in review report. "It was a great year for our club," he said. He continued to report that the IACC saw record attendance at events such as Super Bowl, Carnevale, Ferragosto, Friday Nights in the Pavilion and our annual Columbus Day Gala. There were also sold out bus trips to Arthur Avenue and Yankee Stadium. There were several improvements to our club including the renovation of our second floor president's room complete with new walls, ceilings, lighting, carpeting and an audio visual system.

He reported on new traditions that were or will be started in 2017 including three new awards that were created to honor member dedication and commitment. The new awards were presented to Maria DeNitto (Pasquale Tirino Service Award), Dino Barbato (President's Award) and Gail Tarantino (Core d'Oro Award).

A new 13 foot blue spruce tree is being planted on the property which will be lit on December 3rd at 4pm in honor of the Christmas season. This will mark the first year of what will be an annual tree lighting tradition.

Frank went on to say, "As great as 2017 was, 2018 is going to be even better." In 2018, we will celebrate our 45th anniversary and every event will have a special surprise to honor our members. We will unveil a new logo and a new website. The second floor renovation will continue with the hallway and boardroom getting a makeover. He announced that Joan Wallis has been appointed as the new editor of the Siamo Qui and said, "She has volunteered to take a broad approach at managing our newsletter from choosing content, proofreading articles and ensuring we are not missing any opportunities to get our message out to all of our members."

Vice President Ann Marie Lizzi gave a report on membership. She stated we now have 405 memberships. Dave Quadrini gave a report listing out many improvements and repairs made to the club over the year. Donna Zumbo reported on the activities of the Women's League.

Jim Sano spoke to the group about the great work the Foundation is doing. He reported, "This year was another very successful year for our Foundation." Our Circle of Friends campaign ended and was very successful. The monies raised from this effort allowed us to pour cement slabs in the rear BBQ area in the pavilion and garage entranceway, make some lighting upgrades, install ventilation upgrades in the kitchen, restore the floor in the large gathering space in the pavilion and add a keyless garage door opener for easier access to the front of the building.

This year also saw us obtain our first seasonal beer, wine and cider license which allowed us to sell adult beverages for our expanded Friday Nights in the Pavilion. In addition to our longest and most successful season of Friday Nights in the Pavilion, we also hosted a fundraiser for Father Young Industries, our annual Cigar Night, Saint Patrick's/Saint Joseph's Mass, Saint Anthony Mass and Luncheon, Ferragosto, the Halloween Party and in cooperation with the Women's League brought back the Children's Easter Party. "I eagerly look forward to offering these and more activities and continue to improve our facilities in 2018 and want to thank you our members for your continued support".

Halloween Party

Almost 100 costumed participants showed up for this year's Halloween Party from aged 2 months through 80 years young. A great time was had by all. Many thanks to Lynda and Cain Scalzo for the weeks of planning and preparing the pavilion to look very spooky, you truly outdid yourselves this year. Thanks also to Maria DeNitto and her kitchen crew for providing the usual great food.

PAVILION VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION PARTY

Some snapshots of our wonderful volunteers that made this year's Friday Nights in The Pavilion the longest season and most successful year ever. We wish could do these all year round!

Bolognese Sauce

Once the sauce has come to a boil, turn the heat down to low. Simmer on low, covered, for about 3 hours while occasionally stirring to prevent it from sticking to the bottom of the pot. ....low and slow is the method! Taste and season if needed.

Buon Appetito!

Every year we host Christmas Day at our home, and my Bolognese Sauce is always on the menu for the first course of pasta. This is something I always make ahead of time because it can be stored in the refrigerator for a few days. This isn't something you'd want to make the day of the holiday because it's a bit time consuming. It's nice to have this already set to go the day you'll be serving it. And, in my opinion, it tastes better the next day after all of the flavors have time to infuse. Bolognese Sauce is a meat sauce that includes tomatoes, carrots, celery and...wine! I just love cooking with (and, well...drinking) wine! I love the flavor it adds to food and it's the perfect touch for this sauce!

You will need:

- 2 lbs of ground beef
- olive oil
- 1 chopped carrot
- 2 celery stalks, chopped
- 1 onion, chopped
- 2 cloves of garlic, minced
- 2 large cans of crushed tomatoes (28 oz each)
- 1 cup of dry red wine
- salt
- pepper
- basil
- parsley
- sugar

In a large pot, heat extra virgin olive oil (about 2 turns of the pot) on med-high heat. Add onions, garlic, carrots, and celery and simmer until the onions are soft and translucent. Season with salt and pepper. Add ground beef, break it up and cook until it has browned. Add 1 cup of dry red wine and simmer for one minute. Add the cans of crushed tomatoes and season with salt, pepper, basil, and parsley. You'll need to add some love to this....taste as you go, season as much as you'd like....cook with love! Add 1/2 teaspoon of sugar to cut the acidity of the tomatoes and add a little sweetness to the sauce. Stir well and cover the pot.
